New Business/ Present Business:

Becky has submitted an article for the Town Report.

An inquiry for the history of the property at 75 Highland Street was referred to the Historical Society.

Becky will discuss with Kerry Speidel, the Town Manager, the process for appointments to be made by the Board of Selectmen to the Architectural Preservation District Commission.

Richard reported there were no demolition delay requests.

Although the Cemetery Project Report has not been finalized, Richard advised this proposal, that involves substantial repairs, will be completed shortly

Richard spoke about some of the work he has done with signs and markers in the Town

The third grade elementary school Historical Tour of the Upper and Lower Common and the Town Pound is scheduled for June, 4, 2015. Amory, in age appropriate costume, will be the guide at the Lower Common, and Becky, also in appropriate costume, will be at the Town Pound. Tour photographs of these sites will be available.
