Employee Highlights

- Our Land Use Director's last official day in the office is this Thursday, October 12th. I want to thank Adam for the last nine year's he has dedicated in service to the Town, for his professionalism, for explaining complicated zoning issues in a way that everyone can understand, and his great sense of humor. All the staff will miss working with him.
- The DPW employees assisted Mayer Wood in reconstructing a drainage pipe on Gibson Street that was damaged during the rain event on September 11th. The road was supposed to be closed all day today and be reopening tomorrow but having the DPW crew assist allowed the road to be opened earlier than expected. Thank you to our DPW employees for assisting on this project and making it go smoother and accomplished quicker than expected.
- Tomorrow is the ribbon cutting ceremony for the new ADA outdoor patio at the Lunenburg Adult Activity Center and I would be remiss not mentioning here, in addition to what will be expressed at tomorrow's meeting, all the contributions of past and current employees for this project. Past DPW Director Rob Oliva began the capital planning process for this project with COA Director Sue Doherty, the current DPW Director Bill Bernard continued it, and the current Facilities Director Chris Ruth has brought it to the finish line. Chris has done a lot of work with engineering firm, with the Assistant Town Manager in putting together the bid package, with the contractor after the project was awarded, and making sure the project was finished on time. The Facilities Technician Don Gagne has also helped with the project and making sure it was ready for tomorrow. The COA Director Sue Doherty has been involved intimately with all aspects of this project and was invested in making sure this was complete by tomorrow as well. It should not go unnoticed all the details that went into tomorrow and I want to thank Sue in advance for her attention to all the details.

Community Compact Best Practices Grant Application

I received a notification from the Lieutenant Governor today that they approved the request to update our financial management policies and procedures and to create a bridge and culvert management plan. Based on a communication I received from Sean Cronin, the Senior Deputy Commissioner of Local Services, they were able to fund the bridge and culvert management plan through the Best Practices funding and will be utilizing the Department of Local Services staff to handle the financial management policies and procedures update, instead of the Collins Center.
